Mrs Harris' book recommendation is:

Hippospotamus by Jeanne Willis and Tony Ross

This book is suitable for anyone who enjoys a good humorous rhyming story. Although more suitable for younger children, anyone who reads this book will find themselves giggling along in this entertaining adventure about a hippopotamus who has a spotamus on her bottomus! All the animals offer suggestions as to what it could be and how they could cure her however in the end, the spotamus turns out to be something hilariously unexpected.

Jeanne Willis has delighted children all over the world with her amazing humour and crazy stories and this book is no exception, winning the English 4-11 Picture Book Award in 2013. Working in collaboration with the illustrator Tony Ross, Jeanne Willis has written many many books and I thoroughly recommend reading some of her other fantastic stories...
