

Through developing an interest in and curiosity about the beliefs and views of others in the world around them, our children will feel able to express their own views, beliefs and opinions in a considered and respectful way.

Our children will learn about the religious beliefs, practices and values of different religions.

Our children will develop investigative skills and will ask relevant, thoughtful questions in order to deepen their understanding.

Our children will work collaboratively to learn from one another, developing the ability to consider the thoughts, feelings, experiences, attitudes, beliefs and values of others and differing views.

Our children will develop the ability to see the world through the eyes of others and to see issues from different viewpoints.
